

Community Councillor Vacancy Angle

NOTICE OF CO-OPTION

The Returning Officer of Pembrokeshire County Council has confirmed that the regulation 10 requests from Electors has not been fulfilled and that Angle Community Council can now fill the casual vacancy by co-option.

If you would like to be considered for the vacancy please write to the Clerk to the Community Council with a letter of introduction, outlining as much detail as possible about yourself and how you would contribute to the local community.

Applicants will be invited to attend the next available community council meeting and to make a short (3-5 minutes) personal statement giving the reasons for being interested in joining the Community Council and what particular set of skills and experience they feel they can bring to the role.

For further information please contact the Community Council at:

Eligibility and Qualifications to become a Community Councillor

A person is qualified by virtue of being a British or Commonwealth Citizen or Citizen of the Republic of Ireland, who has attained the age of 18 years and is:

- registered as a local government elector for the community of Angle; or who has been
- during the whole of the twelve months preceding the appointment occupied as owner or tenant of the land or other premises in the community; or his/her
- principal or only place of work during those twelve months has been in the community; or has;
- during those twelve months resided in the community or within 4.8 kilometres of it;
- and is not disqualified from holding office by reason of any disqualification set out in section 80 of the Local Government Act 1972, or any decision made under section 79 of the Local Government Act 2000.

Certain people are disqualified from standing, and these include paid officers of the Community Council, anyone subject to bankruptcy restriction orders and those subject to recent sentences of imprisonment.
