- Matters for discussion

Coronation

Band booked £200

Meeting on Monday 27th 7.30pm open to all.

Cllr. Williams sourcing flooring in Marquee for band

Cllr. Williams request re booking Bouncy Castle??? only one reply so not proceeded with as yet may depend on whether this event is Saturday or Sunday

Cllr, Williams requested a thank you letter to PCNPA and Mind thanking them for the Friday School Cleanup, great job done. We will also send a thankyou letter to Linda Goodwick who along with her grandchildren has been doing regular rubbish collections in the village.

Maidenwells Defibrillator placement – Representative from Sunday School on holiday so no action as yet.

Cllr. Phil Smith advised he had had to contact PCC re property in West Grove Lane burning plastic window frames, he advised if anyone is aware of this being repeated to contact PCC immediately via their on line web page. The fumes are toxic and dangerous.

Cllr. Peter Smith raised concerns re the large building being built to house batteries, Cllr Steve Alderman confirmed that it was shown clearly in the approved plans.

Cllr. Mary Lloyd asked if the Skate Board addition to play area had been abandoned? We will contact Alison Kavanagh for updates etc. I have spoken to Alison who was disappointed with the lack of support from local residents.

Cllr. Emlyn Hallett raised concerns re hedge adjacent to Climbers Cottage, asked to send photo to Clerk to be attached to letter of concern/complaint to PCC

Cllr Suzie Williams advised the meeting how informative her recent attendance at Power Station Liasement meeting was on Marine Hydrogen 45k of shore Celtic Windmills, 40 containers storing batteries. There will be yearly meetings updating this project.

There being no further business the Meeting closed

Signed as a true record.
