– Cllrs Mattick/ Boughton -Thomas
- c) To review the areas of Saundersfoot which are subject to the mowing schedule and to consider a request that this is extended to include the area around the welcome to Saundersfoot sign opposite the entrance to Sandy Hill Park. – Cllr Hayes
- d) To consider the setting up of a working group with other village organisations to support communal projects – Cllr Boughton -Thomas
A working group in conjunction with other village organisations - this has arisen because so often we have good ideas about how to improve the village in general . I have been approached by others in the village with a view to setting up a joint working party, so ideas for the joint benefit of the village can be discussed and put forward with the backing of the several organisations, and possibly with their input, and abilities to push from different directions, the projects have a better chance of coming to fruition.
- e) Refurbishment of the Sensory Garden – to Consider proposals for hard landscaping solutions to improve the aesthetic appeal of the garden -
Cllr Pearson
- f) To receive information about the Woodland Trust free community trees initiative. communitytrees@woodlandtrust.org.uk - Cllr Pearson
- g) To receive and approve the Financial Policy - Cllr John
- h) To consider how Saundersfoot Community Council will commemorate The Queen's 90th Birthday - to include consideration of "Clean for The Queen" initiative and The Big Beach Clean - Cllr Baker
