1274 PCC report

Cllr J Adams had nothing to report.

He did however thank P Pinson very much for all his hard work and commitment as Chair (and member of the council) over the past years and his engagement with the community as he is now standing down. D Smith and the other councillors echoed his comments.

He also recommended that we skip May's meeting as it was due to be held the day before the outcome of the elections. All in favour. Therefore our next meeting will be in June and that will also be our AGM.
