Correspondence Out

- Paul Llanion Enclosing photos of possible dog fouling signs we may order as per his quoted price of £18 per sign
- Phillip Woosman – PCC Re alarm going off at Orierton School following a complaint from a resident
- Streetcare PCC Requesting attention to pathway to Gilead Chapel
Reply received they will investigate

Correspondence In

Planning Support Team Requesting any comments re planning applications are done via email during Covid-19 lockdown

Wales Audit Office Guidance re Account Auditing during current situation

Cllr Jonathan Williams He has received complaints re state of pathway to Gilead Chapel, very mossy muddy and slippery.

I have reported to PCC and received a reply that this will be looked at and attended to see above.

Cllr Jonathan Williams Has reported the alarm from Orierton School going off for many hours, OCON finally sorted but suggests a letter to PCC might be needed

I had also reported alarm to Phillip Woosman the contact name we were given for Orierton School no response as yet.

Cllr. David Callan Concerned that Play Park and Sports Field still being used only 2 of 4 entrances have closed signs put up by PCC.

I informed Dan Shaw at PCC. Cllr. Callan has now put up additional signs.
