There are a few events possible for fundraising in the next few months. Ideas discussed further with a view to expand and and take action.

Easter Egg Run/Hunt – 12th April

Fairytale Celebrations to be contacted to enquire about booking a visit from them for the Easter Sunday. They provide an entertainer dressed up as the Easter bunny to entertain the children.

Other plans include an Easter bonnet parade, Mrs Mirehouse may like to judge. Entries to be judged within two categories, under 5 year olds and over 5 year olds. Prizes for best bonnets comprise of a cuddly toy for the under 5 years category and a £10 cash prize for the over 5 years category.

The Easter egg hunt will comprise of a set of clues that will lead to the main prize. Each person who enters will receive a reward at the end, each entry to pay £1.

There will also be a game of Easter bingo. Prizes will hopefully consist of smaller Easter eggs for line winners and larger Easter eggs for house winners.

Order of events and costing of bingo games to be confirmed at a later date.

Ideas discussed for VE Day are as follows:

Memorabilia from local residents of the village could be showcased in the village hall. A request for such memorabilia will be published in the next newsletter. George Greer could also be approached to ask if he would be willing to either provide wartime relics or allow free entry at Chapel Bay Fort.

The Hibernia to provide refreshments from their mobile bar. Licensing requirements need to be checked with them.

BBQ – Proceeds from the sale of burgers and hotdogs will go towards the park.

Mike Brotherton to be contacted to ask if he would be willing to speak at the event.

A 1930's/1940's style fancy dress parade from the beach was suggested, along with a dance group for entertainment.

Live music.

1940's style games, hopscotch etc.

1940's style photo booth.

Baking competition – egg less cakes. Cakes could then be auctioned to raise money – proceeds to go to the play park fund.

Bouncy castle.

This event is planned to take place in Angle football field. The owner Andrew Thomas has given permission verbally to use the space for fundraising events for the play park, however, he needs to be contacted to give assurance that this is still ok.
