1. Matters Arising

- 1.1. Asset transfer – Clerk had contacted Abi Marriott at Planed but had not received a response. Clerk to chase.
- 1.2. Councillor vacancy – as discussed above.
- 1.3. Lloyds bank account – Clerk reported that it looked like we had now completed all parts of our application and we had been accepted. Now to wait until we receive further information.

2. Agenda Items

- 2.1 Trecwn Green Energy Hub – J Miles, W Miles and M Raymond attended an open day for a possible hydrogen plant at The Valley. The Norwegian company involved are keen on community engagement and involvement.
- 2.2 Fireworks at The Gate Inn/donation – so far the Gate Inn had raised £441 towards this through the Jubilee party and darts.
Proposed M Scrimshaw, seconded D Williams that the community council donate £250 towards this, assuming we can get permission from PCC to hold it on the playing field. Clerk to contact PCC as a matter of urgency.

6 PCC report

Cllr D Harries reported that it had been quiet over summer. There was a full council this week with 24 questions being asked.

There has been a small amount of movement on Barham Road.

He would be raising some questions about schools/funding and the lack of resources for rural areas.

7 Any other business

7.1 A discussion was had regarding the continued booking system for WRC. Cllr D Harries noted people's views and would pass these on.
